

All Black Belts, including juniors, wishing to grade must train on a regular basis and must be in possession of a current TAGB licence. He/she must have held a TAGB licence continuously over the whole training period.

All black belts, including juniors, must attend at least one of the special TAGB Black Belt Training sessions every six months (licence books must be stamped) and all three immediately prior to the grading for which they are applying.

In addition, the following requirements must be strictly adhered to.

1st Dan to 2nd Dan

- i) Attend classes regularly during whole training period.
- ii) Attend Black Belt Training Sessions (X1 in the first half of the year and X1 in the second half of the year)
- ii) Applications must be made through their TAGB School Instructor and endorsed by their Area Co-ordinator.

Note: Minimum training time for students aged 16 years and over is 2 years.
(For juniors aged under 16 years see below *)

 The minimum training times for Black Belts aged under 16 years' old are double those printed. Any training time between Dan grades whilst a student is under the age of 16 counts as half that of an adult. Once the student reaches the age of 16 their training months are then counted as adult training months. The student MUST complete the equivalent of 24 adult training months between 1st and 2nd Dan.*

There is no requirement for any Black Belt who is under 16 years old to attend umpires, referees, instructor courses, or to officiate or compete at any TAGB tournaments.
